

The JMZ Science Teachers invite you to a Family Science Night!

Free! at the

Palo Alto Junior Museum & Zoo

Wednesday, March 7, 2011

6:00 to 8:00 PM

Join the outstanding science teachers of the Junior Museum and Zoo for an after-hours, special night of family learning and fun, celebrating

Palo Alto Partners in Education, which, through your donations, funds science education for PAUSD elementary schools!

Enjoy live animal encounters,
dynamic science activities, and a light snack.

Admission is free, but come prepared to participate in our raffle and win special prizes!
